British Government Defeated

The British labor government has resigned. The defeat came in the form of the passage, by a vote of 364 to 198, of a liberal motion demanding investigation of attorney-general Hasting's withdrawal of prosecution in the case of James Campbell, acting editor of the Communist Workers' Weekly, who was charged with inciting his majesty's forces to sedition. A straight vote of censure, fostered by the conservatives, previously had been defeated 359 to 198 to make way for the liberal amendment.

Britain will elect a new parliament October 29th.

Boy Gets Turkey After Struggle

While the Doley mail carrier was on his trip on Tuesday, passing McCafferty school, he noticed what appeared to be a wounded wild turkey over in the field and told the young son of Willis Martinell, on whose farm it was, what he had seen. The young lad started off and finally got hold of the wounded bird, who put up a vigorous fight, but the lad hung on grimly. He received severe punishment from one sound wing on the bird, besides receiving a cut on the mouth where the bird had pecked him as he was dragging it home. Others in the flock stayed right by their wounded comrade and followed the little fellow right into the barn-yard, finally lighting on top of an old building to see where the young lad would go. Needless to say there was no hunter or gun just at that particular place and time, else there would have been a well filled bag with little effort.

Edgerton Echoes

Your "echoist" has been rather tardy in sending in 'echoes' of late but we have been leading a rather strenuous life lately, having our hands full keeping back and trying to keep up our end of the cribbage score against some of the lusty peg wielders of our city.

This backching is almmmost an epidemic with us just now, for instance; Bill Rogers has tried it, Scotty is trying it and Norm Dorland is in the same category, even Earl Gorton tried it, Walter Maighen is also of the same class too. and we are still all alive. We can all sneak in at any hour we like and nothing is said. It's great.

Hauling is proceeding along the usual lines only that Geoff and Bill essayed a. oh, just the least fraction of a, both along in the neighbourhood of the nether garments when they got so excited, as they flipped the green-heads over, that they forgot the instability of their frail craft. On a forsty evening too. gee but it must feel cool and refreshng.

Warren Wilson has sold his farm and is leaving for Ontario. Bills for his sale are in the hands of the Chronicle editor and will be out soon. This is a big sale and will no doubt draw a large crowd. The date is set for Wednesday 29th of October and Mr. Donahue from Kitseoty will cry the sale.

When it comes to making a success of anything. experience is a valuable contributing link as the following will show. Richard London, father-in-law of L. W. Davis who farms out Arm Lake way. was spending the summer with Mr Davis and incidently in spite of his eghty summers he wishes to have his time occupied in some useful work . Mr. Davis fell on the plan of making him look after the fattening of the hogs and the old gentleman, accepting the duties. sought to prove what could be accomplished by judicious feeding. Five Durocs were singled out for the test and at six months old they averaged 218 lbs. They were weighed each week and when conditions were favorable gains of 2 lbs per day were made, but in the hot summer days this gain shrank considerably, although taken all over this is a very creditable performance and shows thatageand experience does count. Mr. London leaves on he intends to spend the winter. He is still hale and hearty and looks good for quite a number of years yet.

Receipts of cream at the local creamery are holding up wonderfully well for this time of year. so we are informed by the manager. T his is one branch of farming that has netted a good many dollars to its adherents through the summer

Threshing is going on nicely and some good yields are in evidence. far better than was expected

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

The Chauvin Orchestra held a dance in the I.O.O.F. hall on Friday evening last. A very en-Friday evening. which was attended by a fairly good crowd. and very enjoyable time was spent.

Miss Coleman of Wainwright made a visit to Chauvin this week with a splendid display of millinery for fall and winter wear, and reports having had a very successful visit.

Ribstone Junior Red Cross are putting on a concert in the Municipal hall on October 24th.

Editorial Comment

The G.W.V.A. seeks to bring home a proper spirit of national remembrance by the distribution of poppies, made by war-crippled veterans in Alberta. Proceeds from the sale of these little tokens of remembrance provide "service to ex-service men" and thus the faith is kept with those whose last thoughts were for their living loved ones. So, once again, the people of Canada are asked, in the words of Lord Byng, of Vimy, to "honour the dead by caring for the living."

The G. W. V. A. is co-operating with the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment, and by the assistance given by willing and able workers given to make the campaign a huge success, more employment can be given each year to these disabled veterans in Alberta.

Our slogan is "Wear a Poppy on Armistice Day."

Premier King states that the eastern liberals are not friendly to the Hudson Bay railroad plan. He tells no less than the truth. We notice, however, at the same time, that Ontario is actively engaged in extending the provincial railroad (the T. & N. O.) to the Hudson's bay, and that construction work is being done this year.

It may be remembered that the T. & N. O. railway passes through one of the richest mineral belts in Canada, we may add—in the world, and that the extension "bayward" passes through more mineral country with good lumbering. But, and at the same time and manner, the Hudson's Bay road will do the same.

The mineral wealth of Canada is of even more importance than the agricultural wealth of which we hear more. And there is not the shadow of a doubt that the Hudson Bay road will open up a territory in which many of the more valuable ores exist in paying quantities...

One of Canada's leading bankers addressed a visiting convention of American business men the other day. In the course of his address he was describing the province of Quebec and said:—"There is one great advantage that the province of Quebec has, and if you want to know what that is, read the 104th Psalm, the eleventh verse."

The visiting Americans must sensed some hidden joke in the biblical reference, for they laughed and applauded vigorously. But they did not laugh as much when they went back to their rooms in the hotel and read out of the Gideon's bible these words "They give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst."—Financial Post.

THE WESTERN OUTLOOK

For a month Mr. Hector McKinnon staff correspondent of the Toronto Globe, travelled continuously through out the west with a view to sizing up crop and general conditions here. In similar mission for his newspaper says 'The Journal, and has thus a very thorough knowledge of the country on which to found his opinions. On September 4, at Winnipeg, on his way back east, he summarized his outstanding impressions.

The first was that only a climatic catastrophe, which to be feared had to occur within four or five days of the time he wrote—and eleven days have passed since then—could serve to ruin Canada's chances of a wheat crop close upon 300,000,000 bushels. It would be of high commercial grade and unusually high milling qualities. Oats and barley would not be as abundant as wheat, but the west would be amply provided with fodder. The crop would be worth more in net cash return to the individual farmer than was the larger crop of 1923. There would be satisfactory reduction in farm debt and the farmers would practice thrift.

This last virtue is, to Mr McKinnon's mind, the most marked development on the prairies in recent years while the next in importance to it is the increased thoroughness in cultivation. The value of live stock as part of the agricultural scheme is becoming more appreciated. Dairying is expanding into a prime industry. Mr McKinnon has no doubt that the horse is coming to its own again and he finds especial significance in this. It means the passing of the "big farm idea and other "big ideas," and, "with the smaller unit will come a new and better west."

The final conclusion is that "the west has never been so imbued as today with downright, unadorned confidence in its own future." This must strike most of us as going too far. Mr McKinnon's acquaintance with the country does not go back to the pre-war years and he is probably thinking only of the immediate past in making his comparison. But the fact that he finds so strong a contrast between the prevailing spirit and that of the last four or five years means a great deal.

If his statement that never have westerners had so much confidence in their future is somewhat of an exaggeration, the time cannot be far off when it will strictly true. Our industry was never on a better basis than it is now and the results that will accrue from this must speedily put an end to any doubts which may still persist as to what the future has in store for us. The improvement in our economic situation which he finds is substantiated by other competent investigators.

There is 'nothing to beat the breast in connection with the outlook, and those who do so are only showing that they are blind to the facts. An era of greatly enlarged opportunity lies immediately ahead in which individual courage and enterprise will have full reward.

MENTION OUR ADVERTISEM'TS

British Boys Anrious to Come Out
Under the scheme recently inaugurat-ed by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture, with the overseas settle-ment board, whereby British young men are to come to Alberta for special training at the Vermilon School of Agriculture, with a view later to placing them on farms, some 50 ap-plications have already been received by the settlement board in London. Although the stipulation was that not less than 100 were to be sent out in the first party, application has been made to the department in Ed-monton to have the fifty young men sent out at once to commence their training.

Normal School Enrolment
The number of students enrolled for the normal schools of the province for the coming term is 605,, three hund-red and fifty of which are at Calgary and the balance at Camrose.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Your Account Book and Your Bank Book

If your account book shows a profit, that profit should be recorded in your bank book as entries of deposits or else it is likely to dwindle away.

It is a good plan to use the two books together. Estimate your profits in one and then transfer them to the other where they will grow even greater by the systematic addition of interest. Open a Savings Account with us at our nearest branch.
